Why we need
LEGACIES & BEQUESTS

THE need of ex-servicemen, including the disabled and their dependants, and the care of those left behind by men who fell in action, are an ever present and recurring charge on the Legion. Its work in these directions is dependent upon the sale of Poppies —a slender support for so great a work that must go on indefinitely. Every year since the inception of the Fund the expenditure has increased and it is vitally necessary that the Fund should be strengthened and fortified against any possible diminution of income in the future by means of Legacies and Bequests.

MISS SMALLWOOD'S SOCIETY FOR THE ASSISTANCE OF LADIES IN REDUCED CIRCUMSTANCES

(Under Royal Patronage)

PLEASE REMEMBER OUR OVER 300 POOR OLD LADIES

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS we have waged War against poverty and distress, and helped many poor ladies of gentle birth, some trying to live on very little, who, alas, have neither strength nor skill to earn their own living.

We may mention that a LEGACY would be most useful, or a DONATION to our GENERAL, SPECIAL, COAL, HOLIDAY, or SHILLING FUND.

Each year our monthly pensioners increase in number, for when old age creeps on, more comfort is needed, as the warmth and light has died down, and the vigour and friendships of youth have gone, and now lonely and poor and often in failing health, these poor sufferers find in this valuable Society a real "Friend in Need."

There is no class, perhaps, whose condition calls for stronger sympathy, than that of gentlewomen who have fallen on hard times, and who bear their sufferings in silence.

This Hostel was founded in 1891. Its object is to provide a Home where men and women in the last stages of illness, who, having seen better days, shrink from claiming the shelter of the County Hospital or Workhouse Infirmary, and can appreciate very fully the refinement and comfort which we are able to give them, may end their days in peace, carefully and tenderly nursed and surrounded by everything that can cheer them and alleviate their sufferings.

The Home is almost entirely dependent on charity: it is absolutely free to all, without distinction of creed or country.

Never Again His Voice

WHEN her world breaks and life must be faced alone, without a husband's help, the bereaved mother is sadly handicapped in providing for her children. Reedham Orphanage removes the strain and anxiety. Her little ones are received into its care.

Reedham Orphanage was instituted in the year 1844, on liberal principles, for the purpose of relieving Fatherless Children without respect to religious distinction.

Orphans of both sexes are received from all parts of the Kingdom, at any age between 3 months and 11 years, and are retained until they are 15 years of age.

300 are now in the Orphanage. Their maintenance, clothing and education entail an expenditure of £12,000 to £15,000 per annum, but of this sum only £2500 is provided by Annual Subscriptions. The large balance is entirely dependent upon donations and legacies.

OBJECTS—
Consistent Opposition to all forms of Cruelty to Animals

THE SOCIETY has been in existence 32 years and has worked strenuously to suppress cruelty in every form, and to create a spirit of mercy and justice in the treatment of animals.

The Society carries on vigorous campaigns for the adoption of humane methods of slaughter for all animals and birds killed for food, to introduce better methods of transport by rail, road and sea, to end the horrors of cruel steel traps and the fur traffic, to expose the cruelty of the bull-fight and all spectacles and sports which cause suffering to animals, to abolish vivisection and generally to awaken feeling and understanding in regard to the treatment of animals.

The influence of the Society is world-wide and it co-operates with organisations in every part of the world. It stands for the principle that the cause of humanity to animals is not a side issue, but a vital part of civilisation and social development. The Society therefore seeks to introduce humane education in every school.

The Society's active campaigns for reform are carried out by means of meetings, lectures, extensive distribution of publications, Press publicity, international congresses, exhibitions, demonstrations, etc.

The Society maintains permanent Humane Exhibitions in London and Geneva and its two motor caravans carry out educational and practical animal welfare work throughout the country.

FUNDS ARE GREATLY NEEDED FOR THIS WORK OF MERCY

THE UNITED HUMANITARIAN LEAGUE

(Founded January 1936)

THE object of this Organisation is co-operative service in the Cause of Humaneness, and through co-operative service to present to mankind an united testimony against all forms of cruelty, exploitation and injustice: thus witnessing to the truth, too little recognised, that all branches of Humanitarianism are "ultimately and essentially ONE."

The movement combines human with animal welfare, Peace between nations, with cessation of exploitation and warfare upon animal fellow-creatures.

It advocates the principle of all-embracing LOVE, which alone can raise the world above chaos, selfishness and cruelty. The League Council earnestly invites the co-operation and support of all who are concerned for the building up of a new World Order based on the principle of co-operation for the common good.

Please address all offers of support, donations and requests for further information to: The Secretary
